Nationally Competitive Scholarships
For students in Computing & Informatics

What is the Generation Google Scholarship?
$10,000 for next academic year; for students from underrepresented groups

GPA Requirement
None, but applicant should be academically strong

Eligibility
All years; must be enrolled next year at U.S. university

Application Involves
Resume, transcript, short answers; essay responses; 1 recommendation letter; statement of financial need

Deadline
Spring 2024 (exact date TBA)

What is the Foreign Affairs IT Fellowship?
Up to $43,000 annually (for 2 years); internships, stipend; guaranteed job in U.S. State Department

GPA Requirement
3.2 and above

Eligibility
US citizens only; sophomores or M.A. – seeking seniors

Application Involves
Personal statement; resume; transcript; financial aid info; 1 letter of recommendation; statement of financial need

Deadline
February 2024 (exact date TBA)

What is the SEL Scholarship?
Up to $5,000 for STEM undergraduates; entry into professional network program

GPA Requirement
None, but applicant should be academically strong

Eligibility
Sophomores and juniors; all nationalities may apply

Application Involves
Short answer responses; transcript; financial need not considered

Deadline
January 2024 (exact date TBA)

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE

These are just three; there are more out there.
Use this QR code to access more information about Nationally Competitive Scholarships and seek 1-on-1 advising. Specific questions can be emailed to andrewkeener@charlotte.edu