PROGRAM

RECEIVE HONORS IN EDUCATION RECOGNITION

The Honors in Education Program identifies exceptional undergraduate students who, through uncompromising integrity and intellectual vigor, deserve formal recognition of their extraordinary academic performance, skills, and dispositions.

While many education students exhibit noteworthy behavior and achieve high academic standing, only honors students receive Honors in Education recognition recorded on their academic transcript.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES

Students seeking Honors in Education complete a research thesis and take two courses as described in the program requirements.

A detailed description of the process and its required components is provided in the Handbook for Honors in Education, which can be found on our website.
