

Nationally Competitive Scholarships For Students Involved in Public Service

What is the Pickering?

Up to $84,000 for a graduate degree; job in U.S. Foreign Service after; for students interested in high-level foreign affairs

Who is eligible to apply?

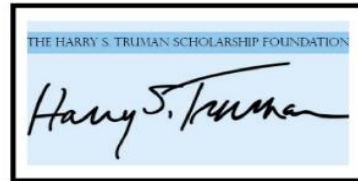

U.S. citizen; senior seeking grad school; 3.2 GPA min.

Application involves:

Personal statement; statement of financial need; 2 recommendation letters

Process and Deadline:

No campus nomination required; deadline is September 29. Pickering applicants should also apply to the Rangel Graduate Fellowship, which is very similar.

What is the Truman?

Up to $30,000 for graduate degree; leadership training; for students who want to be agents of change

Who is eligible to apply?

U.S. citizen; juniors intending grad school; must have strong academics, leadership, and service

Application involves:

Policy proposal; accounts of leadership, service, and academic accomplishment; 3 recommendation letters

Process and Deadline:

4 nominees per university; campus deadline of December 15, followed by nomination and national deadline in February 2024

What is the Udall?

$7,000 and leadership training for motivated students interested in public service for the environment, or Native American affairs

Who is eligible to apply?

U.S. citizen, national, or permanent resident; sophomores and juniors; GPA should be strong

Application involves:

Short answer responses; an essay; 3 letters of recommendation

Process and Deadline:

8 nominees per university; campus deadline of December 15, followed by nomination and national deadline in March 2024

These are just three;
there are many more!

Use the QR code below to access more information about Nationally Competitive Scholarships and seek 1-on-1 advising.

Have specific questions?
andrewkeener@charlotte.edu

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA
CHARLOTTE